

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Data: Amani Azzaidani

Education:

1. Bachelor of Arts in Public Health: University of Washington (Seattle, June 2018).
2. Bachelor of Science in Nursing: Seattle University (Seattle, June 2020).
3. Doctor of Nursing Practice: Seattle University (Seattle, June 2023).

Postgraduate Training: n/a

Faculty Position Held:

1. Teaching Associate, Otolaryngology, University of Washington (Dec 2024-present).

Board Certification: American Nurses Credentialing Center, Family Nurse Practitioner.

Current License(s) to Practice:

1. Registered Nurse (Oct 2020-present).
2. Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner (June 2024-present).

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Activities:

1. Noor Weekend Academy (September 2016- June 2019; September 2022-present).
 - a. Teaches and mentors young members of the Muslim community of the Greater Seattle Area (ages 11-12).
2. Partnered with MAPS MCRC/Essentials First
 - a. Organized a hygiene drive for individuals experiencing homelessness (March 2024).
3. TeenFeed (December 2017-September 2019; November 2022-November 2023).
 - a. Coordinated and organized groups to cook and serve meals for unhoused youth in the community.
4. King County Public Health (June 2023)
 - a. Researched best practices for culturally sensitive treatment of Muslim patients with mental health disorders and presented to King County Public Health affiliates (June 2023)
5. Volunteered at the North Helpline Food Bank (September 2019-December 2019)
 - a. Performed a community assessment to determine halal food needs for food insecure guests at North Helpline

Other Employment:

1. Public Health Nurse -- King County Public Health (Dec 2020-Dec 2022)
2. Newborn Hearing Screener – Evergreen Health Medical Center (June 2018-June 2019)
3. Certified Nurse’s Assistant – Aegis of Shoreline (June 2016-September 2016)